

“I am pleased that we were able to replace first rate team members with an equally top flight group,” said Gov. Perdue. “They will play crucial roles as we move forward with our plans to grow jobs and strengthen education in our state.”

Willis and Davis start in their new posts on March 1. Gibson will move into his new role when a successor has been named for his House seat.

###